

Run Nova Scotia Road Race Series Agreement

By applying to be on the Run Nova Scotia Road Race Series, you agree to the following conditions:

All Races

The race is run at a specific physical location on a particular day at a fixed time (no virtual only events).

On Acceptance into the Series

- All race distances are certified by Athletics Canada before race day (Performance Series races only).
- You agree to pay the standard fee to Run Nova Scotia of $1.50/runner to a maximum of $350.
- You agree to offer a registration discount to Run Nova Scotia members of at least 5% of the regular fee.
- You will use or add the Run Nova Scotia waiver to your registration page.

Registration Form (print and online) includes:

Race name, date, location (civic address and building or location name), start time, start location if different from the kit pickup location
Race fee structure, including the discount for Run Nova Scotia members
The words "Run Nova Scotia Road Race Series" and "Run Nova Scotia Performance Series", as applicable
The Run Nova Scotia sponsor block
The Run Nova Scotia waiver
Mailing address, if forms can be mailed in Race distance(s) that is/are certified*
Length of time the race route is open
Contact information for race director or representative
Notice that non-service dogs are banned from participating in the race

*All Performance Series races must be certified by Athletics Canada.

Race Services: Sign In

Sign in area is easy to find, accessible and organized Toilet facilities are available at sign in
There are enough toilets available
Water is available at sign in

Race Services: Race Start

The start area is clearly marked
Announcements are clear and frequent

The start area is big enough for the number of participants
Mi'kmaki land acknowledgement is made
The length of time the race route is open is made clear
Check made that no non-service dogs are in the start corral
Timing services are ready at start time
First aid providers are available and easily identified

Race Services: On Route

Enough course marshals
Course marshals are wearing safety vests and are easy to find
Directions are given correctly
Water is available
There are caution signs
There are distance marks or markers
There are toilet facilities (for races over 5K)
There are no dogs in the race (unless specifically identified as service or therapy dogs)
There is a trail vehicle/bike/person who can be reached easily by phone and stays with the last participant until that participant crosses the finish line

Race Services: Finish Line

Finish line is clearly marked
Course marshals are wearing safety vests and are easy to find
Toilet facilities are available
Water is available
Food is available
First aid providers are available and easily identified
Run Nova Scotia finish line equipment is used and/or is given mic time
Space is provided for the Run Nova Scotia tent and/or display board
Age class winners are acknowledged equally and in all age classes (junior (1-19); open (everyone); masters (40-49); senior masters (50-59); golden masters (60-69); platinum masters (70-79); titanium masters (80-89); rhodium masters (90+)
Awards are presented in a timely manner
Finish line and finish services are available as long as indicated and/or until the last participant crosses the finish line

Post-Event

Payment of fees to Run Nova Scotia is made
--

The foregoing conditions are what your event will be assessed on, should you be successful in your application. If you need assistance in preparing for your event, please refer to the Race Directors Guide, which is available on the Resources >

Race Directors Info page on the Run Nova Scotia website or contact the Road Race Series Coordinator at raceseries@runnovascotia.ca
By being accepted onto the Run Nova Scotia Road Race and/or Performance Series, Run Nova Scotia will meet the following conditions:

Communication and Promotion

Timely communication with the Run Nova Scotia Road Race Series Coordinator and/or Performance Series Coordinator, as applicable
Inclusion of your race in the online calendar on our website
Promotion of your race in our social media channels: including Facebook and Strava
Inclusion of your race promotion print material (e.g., rack card, brochure, information sheet, registration form) at our booth at series races prior to yours (suggest sending them to us at least 45 days ahead of your event—earlier is better)
Promotion of your race in the members-only email newsletter in advance of your event including any Run Nova Scotia member discount codes

In Advance of the Event

Provide Run Nova Scotia branded race bibs (number must be set 7 weeks in advance of your event).
If your event is not already certified by Athletics Canada, Run Nova Scotia will cover the cost of having the event certified (the fee charged by Athletics Canada only). You are responsible for hiring a certified course measurer and providing a copy of the certification letter to Run Nova Scotia.

Race Day: Pre-race

As required, the Run Nova Scotia van and all the equipment will arrive at your race site one hour before race start
At least one Run Nova Scotia representative to set up the finish area
As required, and in conjunction with your own equipment and any timing equipment, we will set up a finish line area, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Inflatable finish arch (subject to weather conditions)• Finish chute (tape stanchions and/or pylons)• Public address system, including microphone and music• Display clock• Generators and power cords• Weights and other stabilizing equipment
If your race is manually timed, we will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 2 hand-held timers• Pre-numbered finish sticks

Race Day: Post-race

Clean up of the finish line area

We are also happy to assist in any way we can with your awards ceremony.

Thank you for your interest in being part of the Run Nova Scotia Road Race Series. You will be contacted about your status in the series shortly after the Run Nova Scotia Board makes a decision regarding your event's inclusion in the Road Race Series.